

Two Homes of Indonesia - Digital Culture Kit

Indonesia is a very diverse country. Check out these facts:

- 4th most populated country in the world
- Has over 17,000 islands.
- There are 721 local languages.
- Has approximately 300 ethnic groups.
- Six formally recognized religions (informally there are more)

Interestingly, Bhinneka Tunggal Ika is the official national motto of Indonesia. The phrase is Old Javanese translated as "Unity in Diversity"

As a way to show the diversity within the country, we have put together a digital tour of two homes in Indonesia. One belongs to a Catholic family living on the island of Java. The other belongs to a Hindu family living on the island of Bali.

The digital tour is in the form of a Google Photos Album. In it are regular pictures, 360 degree pictures, and videos. We have also added maps and some text to explain what you are seeing.
